Kee Kee Wah

Nestled on the shores of idyllic Lake Manataka, surrounded by the fields and forests of La Plume, Pennsylvania, Kamp Kewanee came alive for two months each summer from 1916 through 1973. During these years, the Kewanee experience affected the lives of more than two thousand young men. Countless life-long friendships and interests were forged during those unforgettable seasons. This 2011 edition of the Kamp Kewanee Directory lists every known kamper and kounselor who ever attended kamp.

You are invited to make regular visits to our website, www.kampkewanee.org, where you will find an active message board, more than a thousand photos, and hours of audio and video recordings.

A Knocker Knock goes to my parents for sending me to kamp so I could experience the magic for myself. Thank you.

-- Steve (WFIL) Klein '63-'67, ed.

The final kamp season has drawn to a close. We had such a grand time together. Remember the Red and Black, the marionette shows, the carnivals, the trips, the hikes, the kampfires, the kamp meets, the masquerade, the canoe trip? One wonders how we did so much in such a short time.....

The Daily Routine

The Kewanee site is returning to the soil - tent platforms sagging with dry rot, steps broken, light-lines swinging in the wind, weeds on the ball diamond...

But the memories live on in the hearts and minds of hundreds who found friendships, games, laughter, habits formed, courage strengthened in the days spent there.

Kewanee - We Love You!

When The Moon Shines

By the hearth aglow,
 When the winter snow
 Lies so deep and so chill.
 Thoughts will often stray
 To one happy day
 On a far away hill.
 To a June night
 With silver moonlight,
 Gleaming bright and still.

When the moon shines
 Through the lonely pines
 And the sleepy world has gone to rest,
 I lie a-dreaming,
 The stars are gleaming,
 And there's music so entrancing,
 Fireflies are dancing
 To the sweet tune
 That we love to croon,
 That the thrushes sang in June,
 Ke-wan-ee,
 I hear you calling me,
 And I'll come back to you soon.

Days go flying fast,
 Soon when Winter's past
 Then will come again Spring.

Flowers bloom here again
 Leaves appear again
 Bird songs clear again ring.

We'll be yearning
 To be returning
 To our Kamp and sing...

When the moon shines
 Through the lonely pines
 And the sleepy world has gone to rest,
 I lie a-dreaming,
 The stars are gleaming,
 And there's music so entrancing,
 Fireflies are dancing
 To the sweet tune
 That we love to croon,
 That the thrushes sang in June,
 Ke-wan-ee,
 I hear you calling me,
 And I'll come back to you soon.

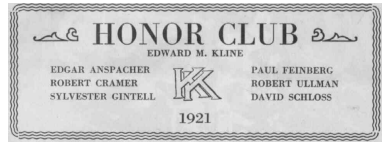

Dinner Time

Kewanee years with wonderful mentors, friends who remained through life, an environment almost perfect, growing up each summer, the mess hall, shop and nature, theater and marionettes, sports, canteen, rest hour, Aubrey and Wilma, Jimmy and Mrs. A. and all the counselors who acted as coach, friend, advisor, and often idols, remain as vivid reminders of what once was a simple, fun-filled learning experience. As years pass and careers unfold, those distant wonderful memories rise to the top like the cream of milk which we once enjoyed but no longer should drink. Kewanee is the cream of our life but we no longer have it to enjoy. Perhaps it is best, for the memories become stronger and more beautiful with every passing year. Oh Kewanee, how I love you.

-- Cal Landau, penned in 1992

"Once again, the Final Banquet marks the announcement of those selected for membership in the Honor Klub. Once again congratulations await the fortunate few, for, as all Kammers know, this award is the most coveted and sought-for mark of distinction that the camp has to offer. No medal or trophy is given to the men in this group but they possess what is in the last analysis amounts to more, the acknowledgment of leadership by the boys and the sincere confidence and respect of the councillors.

"The great difference between the medal winner and the member is that while the former is simply expert in swimming or track or some other branch of sport, the Honor man possesses ability not only in athletics but also in the social side of Kamp life. He is the man who takes an interest in dramatics, in literary work, and who serves the Kamp in many ways, even though he receives no special reward. The real difficulty involved in obtaining the necessary requirements is evident when one considers that although eight members may be admitted, in neither of the past two years has it been found that number showed themselves sufficiently qualified for election.

"And thus, representative of the best in Kewanee, it is, as its name implies, truly an Honor Club."

Selected Articles:

Fun in the Water 1920 Kewanee Kourier

The most popular of all sports - SWIMMING. Tennis is fine, and baseball and all the rest, but me for the clear cool Lake when the whistle blows and Mr. Meyer calls: "All in." Down to the Tank we rush, in we go, and there in truth the less skilled swimmer remains until he has mastered the art well enough to pass the test. With its wooden floor and maximum depth of four feet, the Tank is the place to learn. But for the veterans - well the Tank is O.K. for the initial dip, but then, when the guards are stationed in the boats - out they do go into the Lake. Now we're on our way to the raft. Soon the spring board, and the diving towers are manned, and the fun is on. All around us are Kouncillors in boats and we swim inside the area marked by them, but its plenty roomy enough to do any old stunt.

Is there anything more exciting than our swimming meets, when the whole Kamp mans the plank walks of the Tank and cheers the contestants on? I'll say, not.

At the season's end comes the great, length-of-the-Lake swim. And many boys who at the season's start could not swim a stroke accomplish this swim. Everybody who watches it says it's a sight worth while. Every boat and canoe is out, manned by a Kouncillor, and each boat follows a small group for safety's sake. It gives a fellow confidence to be able to do that distance and still feel fresh at the end. Once every so often, a game of water baseball enlivens things still more because that's when we can duck a Kouncillor and get away with it - until next day when he catches you in the Tank. Give me the chance, the next day is twenty-four hours away.

Teams

1920 Kewanee Courier

The whole Kamp is divided into a four-team league. Each team chooses a captain and of course a team cheer, and a schedule is arranged. One for the month of July, another for August. At the end of each season the winning team gets the watermelon and lets the mouths of the losers water enviously.

Kanteen

1922 Kewanee Courier

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, or nearly so, we have "Kanteen." Kroto, our great Kroto, has charge of it, also the helpers. Ask him which is the hardest to manage. Allan Goodman is perpetual assistant, the others are transient. As soon as Kroto is tired of them, another Kamper gets the chance and the accompanying extra candy ration.

As soon as dinner is over on any Kanteen day, and Dr. Meyer has asked if there are any announcements, you can hear that everlasting question, "Kanteen today, Kroto?" If the answer is in the affirmative, the Kampers are noisily happy. So far this year we have not been disappointed. Good for Kroto!

A new method of conducting Kanteen has been introduced. The second half of rest period was used, avoiding the after-dinner rush of former years. As soon as word that Kanteen is ready has come out of the office, a semi-orderly line is formed in front of the table used. We each receive the allowed amount of candy, and can take our choice of several brands. Sometimes there are crackers, and the regular quantity is one box each. Then we leave the mess-hall munching happily and looking forward to the next time.

Saturday Morning Services

1922 Kewanee Courier

The services held in due observance of our Sabbath are the times when our thoughts are inclined to wander towards serious matters. During the week merriment reigns supreme. But each Saturday, we set aside for a time our games and sports designed to improve us physically, and devote our attention to the strengthening of our moral characters.

First in order are the prayers. Following, comes the sermon, delivered as only Dr. Anspacher can. The text usually concerns some common deficiency of boyhood applied particularly to Kamping life. Then the closing hymn, and the benediction; and we leave the mess hall feeling that we have been benefitted to a great degree both mentally and morally.

Shopping Daze

1963 Kewanee Knocker

This year many new and unusual projects were made. Among these are a combination step-stool and stairs, a wheel of fortune, modern lamps and many more. Kamp Kewanee extends its thanks to Ted, for a very well instructed year of shop.

Inspection

1919 Kewanee Courier

Every morning after the setting up exercises, preparations for inspection are made. The beds are carried out of the tents to air. Many busy hands are sweeping, making the beds and shaking the covers. Many happy voices are chatting on many different subjects. Too bad this peace is sometimes disturbed by the quarrels of the Kamp. Thank goodness this happens seldom enough. When each one is finished cleaning the tents, there is a rush for the faucet. We carry our basins filled with toilet articles with us and wash there. We come back all spick and span greeted by the gladdening tones of mess, sounded clearly and pleasantly on the bugle. Then all to breakfast. In half an hour we return from the mess hall with our stomachs filled and our work done. In five minutes first call for inspection is blown by our famous whistle blower, Mr. M. We straighten the last odds and ends; here a shoe, there a match to be picked up. Then the second call is blown or rather whistled. Messrs. Lobel, Zemansky, and Meyer are the inspectors. All have a great experience in this art. Woe to those who have unswept floors, or dirty fingernails. There are fifteen tents. Each inspector takes five. Inspection is pretty strict and every one wants a model tent so we all work hard.

Net Income

1963 Kewanee Knocker

This year butterflies were the main source of nature in kamp. It didn't take long for the new Kampers to catch on, for they had some of the best collections. Mark Gilder caught the only Regal this year. The Monarchs, Viceroy and Easterns were not as rare as in 1962. Life in the Lake was also very popular. People who did this studied all sorts of microscopic animals that make their home in our lake.

1916

1935 Kewanee Courier

Guns roaring in Europe... men marching, marching... seeing their comrades die... Generals planning where to place this division... and that... Governments forcing people to think of war, and only war... Horror everywhere...

In the midst of this there is born a bit of paradise... a refuge from the craziness of the world... Far away in the Blue Ridge, on the shore of Lake Manataka, in the stilly depths of rolling woodland... Dr. A opens Kamp Kewanee.

Ted and Dave in the Nature Lodge

Astronomy boys went out at night and observed such things as constellations, stars, meteors, planets, airplanes and many other things. Back at the Nature Lodge they did things like drawing star maps and making booklets on stars.

Trees and plants were worked on this year also. Those who did this collected wood specimens and leaves. Meteorology was worked on also. Those who did this made predictions every day. Boys who took birds were able to see a Turkey Vulture which was lurking around Kamp.

Congratulations goes to Bill Spear who finished a map of Kamp Kewanee which he started last year. Also, this year, Andy Bresler and Mike Lamensdorf started a map.

However, we had chickens, most of which were unhatched. Wolff, Haas and Goodman, insisted on extra eggs, which were brought by Ben as a prologue to his customary tale of activities in the torrid zone. Allan Goodman staged a Columbus act with the eggs, and Arthur, suddenly deciding against his, altho he has been assured many times that they came from fresh hens, palmed them off on the rest of the table.

Voices: "Canteen, Kroto?"

Voice: "After dinner."

During study period the one faithful pupil laid the anticipated egg under Mr. Lobel's tent.

After study hour, Mr. Lobel diplomatically induced Mr. Dundes to trade his Senior baseball for Junior baseball. Both games of the latter were then forfeited.

Among the extraordinary events of the morning game were:

The first two innings proceeded without an argument. (Messrs. A. Meyer and Lobel were not the opposing captains.)

Mr. Cohn pushed Arnold Berman out at second.

Allan Hyman struck out.

Artie Victor walked Davy Schloss intentionally.

Bob Ullman, at second, woke up long enough to assist center-fielder Fassler in disputing a decision on a close play at home.

Sonny muffed a ball at short, but Silly came from behind the plate in time to field it and throw Zowie Bing out at first.

The rule book was called for and Mr. Anspacher was offered instead.

Much to Mr. Lobel's discomfort, he had to forsake his perch in back of the pitcher's box in order to be able to misjudge Edgar's one accomplishment - fouling.

At swim time, Buddy Heilbrunn startled us by appearing at the tank in a bathing suit. But seeing the fellows duck Herbie Block and hearing the latter exclaim "This may be fun for you, but it's H--ell for me," Buddy rejoined Shakespeare on shore.

As I was going up to my tent, I heard Billy Packard arguing with Louis Friedenberg and insisting that he had made only five errors.

Now for dinner.

Herbie Block and Billy Haas spread their food generously over the tables, while Marv Harris did his best to convince his waiter that he required an extra portion. As Mr. Dundes had determined to give up smoking, he rigidly refused to smoke any cigarettes - except borrowed ones, which, due to the fact that Mr. Al Meyer was indisposed, were quite plentiful.

Voices: "Canteen, Kroto?"

Voice: "After supper."

Mr. Erlich and Mr. Cohn tossed up to see who would take us shooting. Mr. Buys was the loser, but as he was out chasing bugs, Mr. Duades and Mr. Meyer took the guns and went shooting by themselves among the birds. Throughout rest period Larry Nathan was industriously engaged in winning a bet.

In the afternoon junior ball game, due to Mr. Kuklin's keen interest in assembling the teams, four regular members of the "Never Groh's" appeared, and as the "Corn Cobs" had nine men, the "Tri-and-Speaks" were called upon to guarantee Mr. Kuklin an afternoon of agony. Eddie Levy reached first safely and courageously started for second despite the fact that the first baseman had the ball. His dumbness was rewarded, however - Leonard Bauer was playing second. Greedfield then stopped razzing the umpire for five minutes to shift the players. The Goldbergs took advantage of this intermission to join Mr. Buys on the lake. The re-organized team functioned perfectly until on the first play, Goldschmidt, lulled to sleep by Artie Sommerfield's gentle murmuring, dropped the ball. The score was now forty-three to nothing - but the other team had not yet been up. At this point the game was called on account of swim.

Arnold Jacobowitz, fully dressed, draped himself around the tank, thereby causing Billy Strauss, who tried to pass, to fall in. As a penalty for being in the water before "All in," he was told to pick up three hundred papers. He did not mind this, however, as Sid Bock immediately promised to tear up a hundred and fifty page magazine.

Following the afternoon swim, comes kouncillors' hour. Sheldon was marking the tennis courts for a change and when spotted by a certain kouncillor was immediately put off the courts. The latter then complained that the courts were never marked. The baseball diamond was being put to better use at this time by Bernard Bettman who was showing his admirers, Ellis Oppenheim and Teddy Taylor, how he improves his batting average without bribing the score-keeper. Toots Herrup was warming up with Donald Hyman for some games when he gets back home, when he was unceremoniously interrupted by the latter's family who drove up to spend another afternoon at Kamp. But hearing Herbert Baumgarten's one finger ministrations on the piano, they decided to cut their visit short. Mike Zeman told me that he was going home the next morning. I don't know if he is disgusted with anything at kamp or is afraid the railroad rates will go up by September first.

Of course we had supper and, it being Thursday night, chocolate ice cream. But I didn't get any because Mr. Meyer suddenly remembered that he had sent David Kahn down to clean the shop, and since he had not returned, concluded that he was still there. He told me to get him and while I was gone, Louis Gutmann was a trifle quicker in appropriating my cream than was Leo Toch, much to the latter's dismay.

Voices: "Canteen, Kroto?"

Voice: "Hasn't come yet."

Generous Bill Henly provided himself with another excuse and senior basketball was postponed. This met with the approval of all but Lifflander, who craved another opportunity for providing the justice of last year's Circle K.K. for basketball.

At campfire, Gene Warner began a baseball story which was well told by the rest of the kampers.

Taps failed to deter Nat Block from completing his self-appointed task of littering the ground with paper, thereby giving his tentmates work for the morrow's inspection. In tent six Charlie Liebman and Charlie Klein were still scrapping and Messrs' Erlich and Cohn came within hearing distance just as George Wertheimer vigorously insisted that they shut up. His attempt to pour oil on the troubled waters resulted in a three-for-one punishment, George being the one.

Voices: "Canteen, Kroto?"

Voice: "Out of a swim!"

Hoping you are the same,

Your own son,

Moonlight Boating 1919 Kewanee Courier

Romance with a large R is present in moonlight boating. I go out in a boat and paddle idly along the calm surface of the lake. Not a ripple disturbs the serene calm of the water. The trees cast huge shadows near shore and the clear crystal water reflects the myriad stars up above. I let my boat drift and recline lazily. The gentle wind blowing through the grove provides restful music as it stirs the leaves in the trees. I gaze up at the glorious skies and the full moon and my mind wanders off into space. My boat drifts through lily ponds and the swish of the lily leaves against my boat is wonderfully soothing.

Down the other end of the lake I hear soft music. A group of Kampers is on the lake and they are all singing. We pass each other and hail by name. Then we drift apart. Again I am alone. I feel so comfortable and wish I could drift down this lake for ever. But alas, the whistle blows. It is time for bed. "All off!" the Kouncillor calls. I bring my boat to shore and anchor it. I make my way to my tent through the grove and get into bed and sleep the sleep of the just.

Marionettes: "The Wizard of Oz"

1947 Kewanee Knocker

Sprinkled with all the color and flavor of the stage, mixed to the proper blend by a group of over 50 boys, dashed with a "pinch" of cheery tunes, and topped with an "icing" of human-like marionettes, the La Scala Marionette Troupe's recipe for another successful performance came out of the oven - a huge hit. La Scala has added another candle to its "cake" of sensational productions.

Highlighted with a cast of outstanding performers, this year's production, "The Wizard of Oz", provided laughable entertainment for over 500 people. For the first time in many years, the Kewanee group journeyed to Camp Pinemere to present the year's show on the 24th of July. Two evenings later, the same production was staged before a standing-room only crowd in the Kamp Kewanee Lodge.

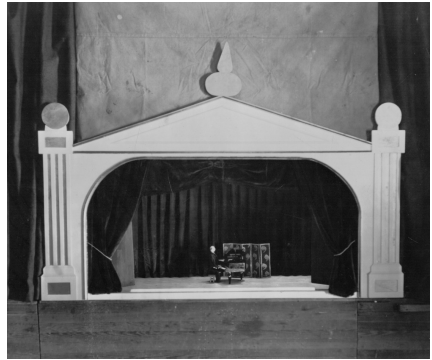

The cast for this year's show included many, many excellent actors: Paul Mannes, Jerry Adler, Eddie Bowers, Dan Lorch, Jack Biernbaum, Jim Goldstein, Harold Kaufman, Danny Claster, Frank Sundhiem, Sonny Silmore, Gordon Lawrence, Joel Farber, Alan Levinson, Bob Rappaport, and Gordon Rosenthal.

Back stage, a hard working group of boys kept the show moving with rapid scenery changes. Mark Rothman, David Loeb, Kit Green, Andy Rosenberg, Ernie Schlossberg, and Mark Myers under the leadership of Crew-Chief Dick Kaufman aided in many ways toward making this show the finest ever.

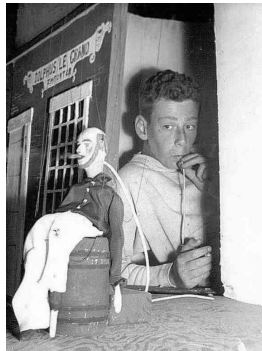

Ralph Beren, the Levy Twins, and the entire cast provided the musical note to the production. "Hutch", with his usual outstanding music, added the background music for the show.

Over 25 marionette stunts provided laughs and surprises to the wonderment of all. A marionette that exploded, a cyclone that carried away an entire farm scene, a Tin-Woodsman whose heart lit up, a chef that was frozen in an ice cube, and even a witch that was turned into a flower (not a very sweet smelling one, at that) were among the various tricks in this year's show.

This year the La Scala Troupe arrived at Kewanee with a new-super-delux-modern-streamlined-extraordinary-colossal stage. Standing over four feet high and with a curtain opening nine feet wide, the troupe performed with new and larger marionettes and scenery.

The show this year would not have been possible if it were not for the many, many people who gave aid to the production. Costumes, scenery, marionettes, lighting, staging, music, transportation, private secretaries, and a staff of other indispensable workers were, without doubt, the "heroes" of the show. Jimmy A., Larry Spoot, and Doc Klein added the extra punch of leadership that proved so valuable in making the show a SOCKO HIT.

Final Banquet 1921 Kewanee Courier

All good things must come to an end, and tonight's event marks the close of another summer of sport and play, another one of the years that in our lives pass so fleetingly by - the season of 1921. In the midst of awards to the victors, speeches of appreciation, and preliminary farewells, let us pause for a moment for a serious consideration of what, as campers, camp has meant to us.

An important, and perhaps the most outstanding feature of camp life is athletics. And everywhere, under the skillful guidance of our councillors, a great improvement in the ability of the boys is noticeable. Those who at the outset hardly knew the rudiments of some of the sports so dear to every boy's heart are now adepts at most of them, boys who showed some skill in the early season have reached the point where it is fair to say they are experts, and a few whose aptness to athletic work is very marked would be leaders for their age and size among boys anywhere, and give promise as the next few years go by, of developing into athletes of the first order. In track and swimming, in handball and tennis, in baseball and basketball, each boy has had ample opportunity to progress along the line most attractive to him, and the results, as ever, have been satisfactory, and to one unfamiliar with the benefits of our outdoor life, surprising.

Turning to social activities we find that we have had the same wide opportunity to display our talents and abilities in fields as broad and as varied, from oratory to histrionics, from literature to agriculture, from the sublime to the ridiculous to put it humorously - and tritely. Dramatics has been a particularly well-cultivated field both in the number of campers interested and in the experience the boys have obtained. In the Vaudeville Show, the Masquerade, the Kamp Entertainment, and the Red and Black Contest, we have had our opportunities to occupy the center of the stage and have the spotlight to ourselves. The merit of these performances is for you who read to judge, and tho, since you are judging yourselves, the opinion may be biased, the verdict must be favorable. Our shows have all been amusing, the work well done, and particularly in the Declamation Contest, meritorious. Shop and Garden have likewise attracted a large number, and though the results are less spectacular, the effort is deserving of mention.

So Kamp, giving equal attention to the two important phases of development, fulfils a well-rounded purpose. To take the task in hand and do it well and faithfully, to inculcate the principles of fair play and sportsmanship upon which all life is based, to learn to play the game and play it squarely - character making and character building, these are the Kewanee aims, and in these, the summer has been successful.

KHRONOLOGICAL LISTING

This section of the Kamp Kewanee Alumni Directory is the Khronological Listing of all Kewanee Kampers, Kounselors and staff. Below each Honor Plaque is the list of alumni who first went to Kamp that summer.

Following each person's name is the list of years they attended kamp. For example, '30-'33 *34 HP33' would indicate the individual was a kamper from 1930 through 1933, a kounselor in 1934, and was on the Honor Plaque in 1933.

There had been a recent rain which settled the dust, the sun was out, and there was a good breeze up. We finally arrived at the glen and went in for a swim in our fancy red and black bathing suits. The rapids were strong, and Eddie, taking advantage of this fact, walked along the edges to watch the beautiful water shoot up all sorts of jewels, diamonds, pearls, sapphires, opals, and ever so many other wonderful and beautiful things."

GEOGRAPHICAL LISTING

On the Map

This section of the Kamp Kewanee Alumni Directory is the Geographical Listing in which you can find kampers and kounselors by where they now live.

The alumni for whom we have current addresses are grouped by the first two digits of their zip codes. A list of Counties is shown for each group.

Following each person's name is the first year they attended Kamp. Using this, you can refer to their entry in the Chronological Listing for more complete information.

2001 Reunion Song

We all enjoyed this witty and entertaining a capella performance by Gordon Lawrence '42-'56 at the 2001 Kamp Kewanee Reunion, and again as a sing-along in 2006.

(Sung to the tune of "These Are a Few of My Favorite Things")

Melody by Richard Rodgers. Lyrics by Gordon Lawrence.

Reuben and Leon and Earl and their horseshoes
Kounselors from Scranton who never had seen Jews
Red spotted purples with colorful wings
These were a few of our favorite things.

(If the answer is: Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln, the question must be: Name two presidents and a laundry)

No food on the tentline 'cause kamp owners say so
Dave Sechrist belting out En Kelohenu
Marionnetters all pulling their strings
These were a few of our favorite things.

The grove was a shady and idyllic acre
It bordered that pond they called Lake Manataka
Line-ups as soon as the second bell rings
These were some more of our favorite things.

When the rain drips
Through the tent flap
When I'm feeling wet
I simply remember my favorite things
And go get my butterfly net.

(If the answer is: Head Kounselor, the question must be: What did Dick Griswold want to be called after he cleaned 1000?)

Nicholson Bridge jumps to show your bravado
Yours truly as Yum Yum in the Mikado
And Frank Dolbear playing all those Pirate Kings
May or may not be your favorite things.

Cleaning your tent out for daily inspection
Compulsory soap swim to prevent infection
Rainstorms and skunk smells and bumblebee stings
Probably were not your favorite things.

(If the answer is: Frank, Trenny and Winnie the Pooh, the question must be: Name three doll bears)

Overnight hikes when your feet would get blisters
Kounselors dating those good-looking sisters
Dick Hess on the mound with his dazzling flings
These were some more of our favorite things.

Poison jars, pump lamps and wood for the fire
That kounselor pitcher they always would hire
The after taps sounds of the pongs and the pings
These were some more of our favorite things.

(If the answer is: tall kounselors, the question must be: Who were excluded from all those short kounselor meetings?)

Will I earn a skullcap? Relax, please don't panic
Track, swimming and baseball with Camp
Susquehannock
Taps before bedtime that everyone sings
These were among our most favorite things.

(If the answer is: a line drive between the outfielders, a kounselor at rest hour and 1000, the question must be: name a gapper, a napper and a crapper)

Final banquet
Kamp is over
But you want to stay
You simply remember your favorite thing
Next June is just ten months away.

If you still use a laundry bag and not a hamper
It's clear you remain to this day a kamper
Ah, those wonderful memories reunion brings
Kewanee was one of our favorite things.

Kee-Kee-Wah
